The Scottish Provident

Institution

In 1837, when Queen Victoria ascended the Throne, The Scottish Provident Institution was founded. In 1937, the Coronation Year of His Majesty King George VI, the Institution completes its hundredth year.

The Distinctive System of the Institution has stood the test of 100 years, during which the soundness of its principles and the equity of their application have been amply proved.

Under The Distinctive System the premiums are so moderate that at early and middle ages the yearly sum charged elsewhere for a Whole Life Assurance of £1,000 (with profits) will here secure from the first as much as £1,300 or thereby, with right to Bonuses. The additional £300 is equivalent to an Immediate and Certain Bonus of £30 per cent., as large as can be looked for in other Offices only after many years.

Assurances may be effected for amounts from £100 upwards.

EXAMPLE: At age 30 next birthday the annual premium for a Whole Life Assurance of £100 is £1 15s. 2d.

Not exceeding 2 lbs., 6d.; 5 lbs., 9d.; 8 lbs., 1s.; 11 lbs., 1s. 3d Maximum weight....... 11 lbs. Length...... 3 ft. 6 in.

A parcel should not be posted in a letter box. It should be marked "Parcel Post" and presented at the counter of a Post Office.

If a packet bearing the words "Parcel Post," or otherwise marked for transmission as a parcel, is not posted in accordance with this regulation, it is treated as a letter if it is fully prepaid. If it is not fully prepaid at the letter post rate, it will be treated as a parcel, and will be charged on delivery with a fine of 1d., together with the deficient postage, if any, at the parcel post rate.

Parcels containing fish, game, meat, eggs, etc., or knives or other sharp instruments, can only be sent if so packed as to prevent all risk of injury to other parcels. Liquids or semi-liquids are not accepted unless in bottles or cans securely stoppered and suitably packed to prevent damage; nor powders, unless so packed that they cannot escape in transmission. Bottles or glass in any form can be accepted only when so packed as to be secure from breakage. If a parcel be tendered in a damaged or insecure condition it will be refused.

A parcel known to contain a prohibited article, or a parcel intended for delivery at an address other than that borne on the parcel itself, is liable to be refused.

Parcels addressed to a Post Office to be called for are kept two weeks, at the end of which period, if not called for, they will be returned to the sender, if his name and address are given on the parcel. Parcels addressed to a ship are kept two months.

Undeliverable parcels which do not contain the address of the sender and are not applied for are liable to be disposed of after three months. Parcels containing perishable articles will be dealt with as may be requisite.

It is most desirable that the name and address of the sender should appear on the outside of every parcel.

INLAND CASH ON DELIVERY SERVICE.

By arrangement with the Railway Companies the service is applicable also, within certain limits, to consignments sent by rail. The C.O.D. fees, which are additional to the ordinary postage, vary according to the Trade Charge (i.e. the amount to be collected), and are fixed on the following scale:—

Any parcel is liable to be opened for Customs examination abroad; and the contents are subject to Customs Duty according to the laws of the country of destination. The Postmaster General can give no information as to the Customs tariff of particular countries, but if the sender desires an indication of the amount of duty likely to be levied, he should apply to the Department of Overseas Trade, 35 Old Queen Street, Westminster, London, S.W.1, and 9-12 Basinghall Street, London, E.C.2.

CUSTOMS DECLARATION AND DESPATCH NOTE.

The sender of a parcel is required to make, for Customs purposes abroad—upon a special form or forms which can be obtained at a Post office—an accurate declaration of the nature and value of the contents and other particulars. ## AIR MAIL SERVICES.

Particulars of the services, showing Air Routes, Countries served, fees payable, etc., are given in the current Air Mail Leaflet, of which a copy can be obtained by applying at any Post Office. The general regulations of the Air Mail are given hereunder:— LETTER AIR MAILS.

1. Any kind of letter packet may be sent by Air Mail, that is, letters, postcards, printed papers and commercial papers, and samples. An Air Mail packet may be posted in any of the ordinary ways of posting, it can be accepted for registration, but insurance is limited to letters and boxes for Holland and Switzerland. The ordinary arrangements for Express delivery and the use of the green label system (for articles liable to Customs duty) apply.

2. A special Blue Air Mail label must be affixed to the top left hand corner of every Air Mail packet. These labels may be obtained, free of charge, at any Head or Branch Post Office and at certain others.

If an Air Mail label is not available the packet should be clearly marked "By Air Mail"; but the absence of an Air Mail label may lead to delay.

 Air Mail correspondence must be prepaid in stamps to the full value of the combined postage and Air Fee.

PARCEL AIR MAILS.

4. Except where otherwise indicated hereinafter, the General Regulations of the Imperial and Foreign Parcel Post apply, e.g., as regards maximum weight and dimensions. Customs Declarations and Despatch Notes, Compensation, etc., see Post Office Guide.

5. Accepting Offices.—Air parcels may be posted at any Post Office which accepts parcels for places abroad. Air parcels exceeding 15 lbs. in weight are accepted at the same Offices and under the same conditions as similar parcels for transmission by ordinary post.

6. The sender of an Air parcel must affix an "Air Mail" label to the address label of the parcel and to the relative Despatch Note, and should write the words "Air Mail" conspicuously on the cover of the parcel. He must also prepay, in the usual way, the appropriate inclusive rate of postage, see Post Office Guide.

7. In addition to rapid transit by Air service, an Air parcel is usually given speedy Customs clearance abroad. It is important, in order that these advantages may not be thrown away, that the relative Despatch Note and Customs Declarations should be very carefully completed in accordance with the general regulations.

Air parcels cannot be insured, except in the case of those for Holland and Switzerland.

Holland and Switzerland.

9. Particulars of the Air Parcel Services available are given in the Air Mail leaflet. The latest times of posting can be ascertained by enquiry at the local Head Post Office.
